August Event Recap

Sailing Out of Summer by Clearwater Community Sailing Center

The Clearwater Community Sailing Center's "Sailing Out of Summer" event was held August 7th. This event showed off their placemaking installation featuring 3 artistic sailboats that serve as a reminder of the amazing local sea life and that sailing operates in harmony with the environment. People gathered in Station

Square Park and participated in art activities, games, face painting, back-to-school supply giveaways, and enjoyed hot dogs and Ben & Jerry's ice cream. See the placemaking display now through mid-September.

Clyde Butcher Book Signing and Lecture

What an amazing turnout for Clyde Butcher's book signing and lecture event on August 16! Nearly 400 people came to the David Bilheimer Capitol Theatre for Clyde's lecture on Cuba's natural landscapes. At the Clearwater Public Library, fans lined up to meet Clyde and get their books signed at the exhibit.

You can still view, "CUBA: The Natural Beauty - The Photographic Expeditions of Clyde Butcher" and "El Arte: Echoes of Cuba" through October 31st.

Ixmiquilpan, Mexico - Sister Cities Signing Ceremony

The cities of Clearwater and Ixmiquilpan, Mexico are now Sister Cities! Clearwater Mayor Brian Aungst Sr. and Ixmiquilpan Mayor Araceli Beltrán Contreras signed the agreement this past weekend during a festive ceremony honoring both cities.

Ixmiquilpan, located in the Mexican state of Hidalgo, is located about 3 hours north of Mexico City and has a population of approximately 98,000. Many of Clearwater's Hispanic residents have emigrated from Ixmiquilpan, opening businesses and making a new life for their families in the metro area.
